

Satyananda Yoga Academy Europe

YOGIC STUDIES 1

In Yogic Studies 1 students explore and experience key elements of the Satyananda Yoga system. The primary focus is to deepen awareness through personal experience and self-reflection. It is open to both beginners and longer-term practitioners who want to develop greater self-discipline and self-knowledge.

Components of the course

- Asana, Pranayama, Mudra and Shatkarma
- History, Philosophy, Psychology of Yoga
- Yoga Nidra and Meditation
- Anatomy and Physiology
- Mantra and Kirtan
- Yogic Lifestyle
- Karma Yoga

Closing date of application
15 February 2019

SATYANANDA YOGA

COURSE DATES

7 APRIL 2019 – 3 APRIL 2020

Residential dates

1st residential: 7-19 April 2019
2nd residential: 10-22 September 2019
3rd residential: 29 March-3 April 2020

Course structure

12-months course with two 12-day-residential and one 5-day-residential (between the residentials students commit to regular home practice and home study)

Tutors

Experienced international Satyananda Yoga teachers will conduct, monitor and assess the course.

The venue

Hungarian Yoga Association in Szolad, a quiet village near the beautiful lake Balaton, a 90-minute drive from Budapest airport (Hungary)

Further information and application: www.syae.eu